PRETRIAL CONFERENCE ORDER

A pretrial conference was held on March 23, 2012 before Magistrate Judge Charles S. Coody. Present at this conference were Bruce Maddox, counsel for the defendant, and Assistant United States Attorney Kent Brunson, counsel for the government. As a result of the conference, it is hereby

ORDERED as follows:

1. Jury selection is set for May 21, 2012. The trial of this case is set during the trial term commencing on May 21, 2012 before United States District Judge Mark E. Fuller and is expected to last 5 days.
2. There are no motions currently pending and the time set by the court for filing motions has passed.
3. Proposed voir dire questions shall be filed on or before two weeks before jury selection. Counsel should not include questions seeking information which is provided in the jury questionnaire.
4. All motions in limine shall be filed on or before two weeks before jury selection. Motions in limine must be accompanied by a brief. Failure to file a brief will result in denial of the motion. Responses to motions shall be filed on or before one week before jury selection.

5. Proposed jury instructions shall be filed on or before one week before jury selection.
6. Each party shall have available at the time of trial, for use by the court and opposing counsel, four copies of the exhibit list and four copies of each photostatically reproducible exhibit listed.
7. The court will not consider a plea pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(A) or (C) unless notice is filed on or before noon on May 9, 2012. The government and defendant are informed that if a defendant waits until the last minute to enter a plea, and if that plea, for whatever reason, is not accepted by the court, the defendant and the government will be expected to be prepared to go to trial on May 21, 2012. The court will not continue the trial of this case as to any defendant because a defendant's plea was not accepted. In other words, the defendant and the government should not wait until the last minute for a defendant to enter a guilty plea, and both the defendant and the government should all be ready to go to trial on May 21, 2012, as to all defendants, even though a particular guilty plea was not accepted by the court.
8. This case is set for a final pretrial conference on April 30, 2012 at 9:00 a.m. in Courtroom 5A.

Done this 26th day of March, 2012.
